

WARNING

The parasites known to cause

Swimmer's Itch

are thought to be present within

Noxon and Cabinet Gorge Reservoirs,

as well as waterbodies associated with the Lower Clark Fork system

(Triangle Pond, Frog Pond, Quinn's Cut, and others).

To reduce risk of infection after water exposure, shower and or towel off immediately after extended contact with these waters.

For more information, consult the following website:

<https://www.cdc.gov/parasites/swimmersitch/>

